RAMBLINGS FROM A CLUTTERED MIND

We had a wonderful family picnic and balloon release on June 30th. Thanks to everyone for the wonderful dishes that were brought. What a nice selection there was. It was particularly gratifying that so many came and brought their friends and families. It was good to meet Mary's sister and kids from VA, watch Stephanie get her exercise tracking Jackson, to see Keith & Becky's "brood" as well as all the others that came to enjoy and those that came to support. I also think that it allowed us throw a couple of rocks at that myth that Compassionate Friends is all about gloom and doom. It's for sure that we do some serious talking, sharing tough times, crying, hugging, griping and grieving, but we also can get together to laugh, talk and enjoy our friendships. It's good to be able to let others see that side as well. I was especially pleased that many that aren't regular attendees any more choose to come. Juanita, Larry, Rowena, Doug, Bob, Anne, it was a pleasure. Monique & Jo, you too.

But the biggest pleasure was the balloons!! What a joy it was to write our notes to our special ones and send them off together. Just when it looked like a few weren't going to clear the tree line, the brisk westerly breeze took them off toward the sunset accompanied by oohs & aahs as we shaded our eyes to follow our very own one until it was just a speck in the sky. I hope someone got a picture of what some thought was an outline of a butterfly being formed as they floated away. Big smiles, some tears and many warm feelings insured a treasured memory.

We're already started talking about doing it all over again next year and what we can do to make it even better. If you have thoughts, ideas or suggestions be sure to let us know. Why don't all of you pencil in June 7th on your calendars as the tentative date and start your own planning to be there.

Thanks to all that helped make this a success. A special HUGE THANK YOU goes to David, Janie, Lisa and the rest of their family for all they did with setup and preparation. Good job everyone!

On another note, we need your help to get our library of books reorganized. As you know, virtually all of the books were donated in memory of someone's child with the hope and expectation that many others would share that memory in addition to finding some help or understanding from the book itself. Using the honor system, you've been free to talk a book and return it when you were finished. But many are not being returned in a timely manner. So I urge you to look around and if you have a book that you've forgotten about or never got around to returning, please bring or send it back. And if you're not finished, call or e-mail to let us know that you have it. That's one more way we can reach out to each other, share the joy and help each other to grieve as well as to grow.

If you've found that quiet place, rejoice! If you're still searching, struggle on. You will find it.

Jim Sims

LOCAL NEWS AND NOTES

TCF SIBLING GROUP—We are considering starting a Sibling Sub-Group of TCF. We will do so if we have enough interest in the Sibling Group and enough volunteers to lead it. It would meet on the same night as TCF, and then break away for its own meeting. Please respond if you're interested in attending or leading to either Stephanie or Jim: Stephanie at 257-1984 (daytime) or 381-8429 (evening), or Jim at 858-8288, 797-2168, or KyWildcat1@alltel.net.

SEPTEMBER GUEST—Regina Blanton (“The Button Lady”) will be coming!! Everyone can get a button made with a picture of their child inside. Buttons will be 3 inches in diameter. Bring about a 4 x 4 picture. If you don't want to part with your picture, you can make a color copy of it and bring that. There will be no cost, but you can give a donation to help cover Regina's costs.

LIBRARY BOOKS—Please remember to return all borrowed books. Many books were donated in memory of a child. We are doing an inventory and setting up new sign out procedures. We REALLY need your help with this! You can check the book out again immediately. If you can't come to the meetings to return the books, please call Jim at 858-8288 or 797-2168 or email Mary at TheCamps@adelphia.net. Put Library Books in the subject line, and include the book name and author, your name and phone number. Thank you.

TCF YARD SALE—We need your items to sell!! So start digging in your closets and cabinets for things you don't need, and let's raise some money for the chapter!! (We're accepting all gently used items, including baby and children's clothes, furniture, electronics, and books.) Let us know if you would like a charitable donation receipt for tax deduction purposes. On Saturday, September 8, 2007 beginning at 9:00 a.m. and continuing until 2:00 p.m., we will be hosting a yard sale! It will be held rain or shine at South Elkhorn Christian Church, 4343 Harrodsburg Road. It's about 1/2 mile past (west) Man-O-War, then turn right @ 1st stoplight. You can drop off your items at the church on Saturday after 8:00 a.m. or prior to Saturday at Suzie McDonald's house at 3817 Plantation Drive. Don't forget to price your items before you drop them off. Call Suzie to arrange drop off and get directions. Her number is 276-9116 (home) and 576-7680 (cell). Thanks in advance for your contributions. We'll see you September 8th!

WE WELCOME YOU WITH COMPASSION, LOVE, & HOPE

It is always difficult to say “welcome” to people coming to our meetings for the first time because we are so very sorry for the reason they came. For some, the first meeting or two can be rather overwhelming, especially if they are newly bereaved. We hope that anyone feeling that way will return to at least a couple more of our meetings. Everyone is welcome to attend our meetings, regardless of the age at which their child died or the length of time that has passed since that day.

LOVE GIFTS

LOVE GIFTS—There are no dues or fees to belong to The Compassionate Friends. Some parents remember a birthday or anniversary date of their child, or a holiday with a love gift. The “Love Gifts” help with the mailing of the newsletter, maintaining and updating our library and meeting costs. The following love gifts have been donated to our chapter in memory of the following children:

- Given in loving memory of Jason Randall Johnson by their son, Brad & Sundae Park.
- Given in loving memory of David Rison by his mother, Karla Scott.
- Given in loving memory of Jamie Flynt by his mother, Suzie McDonald.
- Given in loving memory of John Martin Laswell by his mother, Francis Shaver.

Please send love gifts to David Fields, 207 Riney B Way, Nicholasville, KY 40356. Please remember, if given in memory of your child, to include his/her full name. If the love gift is in memory of a special date, take into consideration that this is a quarterly newsletter, so send it early. If, for some reason, your love gift has not been listed, call Brandi Koenig at (859) 229-8297.

A very special Thank You to those that contribute love gifts to the basket during our monthly meetings. We greatly appreciate your support.

As Long As I Can by Sascha

As long as I can, I will look at the world for both of us.
As long as I can, I will laugh with the bird, I will sing with flowers, I will play to the stars, for both of us.
As long as I can, I will remember how many things on this earth were your joy. And I will live as well as you would want me to live, as long as I can.

God's Promise by Cara Brockhefs © 1989

Amazing rain
 In Southern California;
 Nearly four miles down the beach
     before it began,
 I am not alone.
 Barmaids and stockbrokers
     mothers and grandfathers
     surfers and town fathers
 All push early morning comfort levels
 In hopes life will last.

The Rainbow
 Overshadowed my third mile-
 Darkness and light colliding.
 "It's God's Promise."
 She'd shared with me years ago
 A Sunday School impression of enormous import.

Have You kept Your promise, Lord?
     inevitable tears
     impending downpour
     I pushed harder.
 Does she abide with you in peace?
     in a faultless body?
 Does she remember her Mother?
 Will we meet in eternity?

Abhorrent, self pity.
 Knowing so many mothers, though,
     (mothers with daughters)
     sharing female secrets,
     trading clothes,
     needing more hugs than sons often give,
 Life can be lonely.

No amount of jogging or fresh veggies could have made her 14 years longer.
 Impossible to buy another kiss hour in my arms
     moment in my lap
     light in my life.
 Rainbows draw painful reactions.

My answer startled.
 I watched it develop:
     a SECOND rainbow
     before my eyes!
     Not big.
     Not bright.
     Protected beneath the original,
     on hold.
 Mine.

My soul riveted to the sky
     feet frozen in place,
 I watched in awe.
 God's Promise filled the Heavens
 Growing huge in depth
     in length
     in intensity
     adding new hues
     tinting the world around me
     painting the sea where it settled.

Perfection.
 Complete and tangible.
 Overwhelming.

Its protégé shortened faded
     but remained protected still.
 My own personal promise
     responding to my need revealed for my benefit.

I am awaited;
     my reservation made.
 Absolute assurance.

Two rainbows filling my morning sky
 Forever fill my healing heart.
 Quality vs. quantity.
 Was there ever a question?
 An old soul was my daughter fearful only of this world
     unabashed by the next.
 Prepared.

Calm now,
 Mesmerized through the last yards of mile four.
 Safety from imminent downpour from doubt from grief
     from loneliness, almost.

Confirmation.
 Saved by a rainbow.

Walking, living, learning, growing.
 Believing.
 When I am fit,
 I'll claim my rainbow.
 Watch for it.

God's Promise.
 Bet on it.

WANTED © 2002

I wanted to see you graduate
 And marry a nice girl one day
 I wanted to see you happy
 But the angels called you away
 I wanted to be grandma
 To children of yours through the years
 Instead I sat and thought about
 What I've missed with misty tears
 I wanted to see you happy
 And call me daily on the phone
 Instead I stood in an empty house
 Feeling so alone
 I wanted to have so many things
 To do in your life through the years
 Instead I look at photos
 And wipe away the tears
 I wanted you with me forever
 I wanted you with me when I grew old
 I wanted your love my child
 To cherish, love and hold
 But what I wanted
 And what I got instead
 Are memories from long ago
 As they run through my head

Now I want you to be happy
 And wait for the day that I get there
 And remember the good times on earth
 And all the love that we shared
 I love you my child forever
 I wanted things to be different for us
 But I know you're with God and are happy
 So I'll try not to make a big fuss
 Be waiting for me when my name's called
 And let me see your face and your smile
 I wanted to see you before this
 But I can wait a little while Lead me down the path you walk
 Take me to God's throne
 For when I get to hug you again
 I know then that I'll be Home
